

WAAPA

10908NAT Certificate IV in Aboriginal Performance

ECU Course Code C84

Course Overview

If you're an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander with an interest in the performing arts, this course is for you. It'll give you the confidence and skills to audition for roles in theatre, film and television.

This course offers students intensive training in acting and improvisation, dance and stage movement, voice and singing, script analysis and the audition process. All areas are performance based, where workshops feed into rehearsals, and rehearsals feed into performance.

On completion of this course students may enter the industry, or further their studies in performing arts courses.

Numerous graduates go straight into the industry, establishing solid careers as professional actors and performers. Other graduates go on to further study in higher-level acting and dance training courses.

Eligibility

Duration: 1 year full-time

Availability: ECU City, Yagan Square

ATAR: No ATAR required

Academic admission requirements (Band 1) and English competency requirements may be satisfied through completion of Year 10 or equivalent.

All applicants are required to attend an audition. In addition, all applicants are normally expected to be turning at least 17 by 30th June in the year of commencing the course.

As part of the application process, applicants will be required to complete a language, literacy, numeracy and digital literacy skills and competencies review. Full details are on the website.

More Information

For further information, please contact the Course Coordinator, Simon Stewart, email s.stewart@ecu.edu.au

Or visit the WAAPA website waapa.ecu.edu.au

Creative thinkers made here.

